Prosumer Education Talks (P.E.T.)

Everyone is an expert as something. Have you ever wanted to stand in front of a group share your knowledge? Wondered what it was like to be a motivational speaker or to deliver a lecture? Is there a pressing message for recovery that you would like to share? This meeting is your turn. Starting in January, you can fill out a form and tell us what you would like to talk on. Several speakers will be chosen and depending upon the number, have about 10 or 15 minutes to share their wisdom. Who knows what you will learn? Come cheer on your peers and learn a variety of things. You are invited to be our guest speaker and cheer on your fellow Prosumers. This will be a great meeting. Don't miss it.
